FOUR FAVORITES WON AT THE CRESCENT CITY

St. Louis Contingent Won Some Money on Victories of Mamselle and Russellton.

JUDGES' DECISIONS DISPUTED.

Crowd Thought Ben Frost Finished Fifth Instead of Third, and That The Way Beat Erne for the Place.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 19.-Russellton and Mamselle won for St. Louisans here this afternoon. Both were heavily played and both, after being hard ridden all the way, won good races.

The track was in wretched shape and, under the conditions, the public were extremely fortunate in picking the right ones in

The winning favorites were Potheen, Rus-

The winning favorites were Potheen, Russellton, Rankin and Mamselle. A foul in the third race, in which Belvino was disqualified, and a misplacing on the part of the judges, who gave third money to Ben Frost when in reality he finished fifth, caused a little excitement.

In the closing event the public again falled to agree with the judges. The finish for the place saw The Way, Erne and Satin Coat fighting it out, and the former looked to have lasted long enough to beat Erne out a neck. The official placing gave second money to Erne, however, and there was a demonstration from the backers of The Way.

a neck. The official placing gave second money to Erne, however, and there was a demonstration from the backers of The Way.

Jockey Winkfield had two mounts during the afternoon and won with both of them. It was his horsemanship alone that made Spec and Mamselle win their races. The former had to be hard ridden all the last quarter to stall off a challenge from Royal Deceiver and win by a scant length. On Street's mare Mamselle Winkfield put up a masterly ride. He nursed this filly along at the first half. When Fair Lass challenged at the turn into the home stretch it looked any odds that Mamselle was beaten. Winkfield jollied her along, however, and managed to land her first past the winning post by a length and a half from Paramount.

Russellton made a runaway affair of the high-weight race. He had the speed of the party and was at home in the going. Fuller kept him on the path all the way and he won easily by three lengths from Peat.

Belvino was a heavily played favorite in the third race, as he had every right to be. O'Nelli rode him and he put up a ride that a stable boy would have been ashamed of. Belvino had all his early speed and O'Nelli used it up by racing Alpaca off her feet in the first half. When Lady Alberta moved up and challenged at the turn into the homestretch, Belvino botted to the inside and carried her down into the had going. This ruined both their chances, and the result was that Bard of Avon. who finished on the extreme outside in the good going, got up in the last ten yards and beat them out. Our Jessels was fourth, four lengths back and six in front of Ben Frost.

When the stewards disqualified Belvino and ordered second money paid to Lady Alberta the judges mixed things up by placing Ben Frost third. They overlooked Our Jessel completely.

Rankin stamped himself as one of the best mudders at the track by jumping out and beatting a good field in the fourth race. He laid in second position to the stretch turn and then came on and won in a romp by three lengths.

and then came on and won in a romp by three lengths.

Potheen won the last race in a canter and was boosted $95 over his entered price by Boots Durnell. He was pretected by Hildreth and bought in for $1.505.

Peter Wimmer, trainer for Captain Sam Brown, arrived here this morning for the purpose of arranging for the shipment of Tancred to Mabile. Tancred has been running here as the property of V. Hughes and has won a couple of races. Hughes registered Tancred with Secretary Clarke as his own property. He admitted to the siewards this afternoon that Brown owned him outright. On this confession the officials were compelled to suspend Hughes indefinitely. Indefinitely.

The purses won by Tancred will have to the be turned over to the owners of the horse which finished second to the Brown colt.

MEWPORT BOOKIES GET DRUBBING. Four Favorites and a Heavily Played

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Cincinnati, Jan. 19.-The races at Newport lo-day were well attended, although the veather conditions were anything but favorable. It was much too cold for comfort and a high wind was blowing. The track was good next to the rail, but soft in the center, The talent had a good day, as favorites captured the first three and last race, while Doctor Hassman, well played at 5 to 1, landed the other. As a result, the bookles received an awful drubbing.

A series of mix-ups and accidents occurred in the first race. Nine horses went to the post in that event, and only five actually finished. Hart D. and Omelia were left at the post, and Pat Garrett and Dunsbro fell on the turn of the back stretch. Pat Garrett was the first to go down, followed by Dunsbro. Mountain, on the latter, had hardly time to steer clear of Pat Garrett, and, with a sudden jerk on the horse's bridle, sent his mount leaping over the prostrate horse before falling. Both boys were thrown some distance, but got up uninjured. Summaries:

REVOLVER ASSOCIATION MEETS. Alfred Gfeller of St. Louis Elected Executive Committeeman.

New York, Jan. 19.—New officers, as fol-icws, were elected at a meeting of the Uni-ted States Revolver Association held tolows, were elected at a meeting of the United States Revolver Association held tonight:

President, E. A. Partridge, Boston; vice president, P. A. Becker, San Francisco; secretary-treasurer, A. L. A. Himmelwright of New York. These officers, with A. F. Gfelier of St. Louis and B. F. Wilder of New York, form the Executive Committee. It was decided to hold the championship matches under the same conditions as last year, in conjunction with the meeting of the National Rifle Association at Seagirt, the first week in September. Simultaneously the matches will take place at Boston, St. Louis, Chicago and San Francisco. The indoor championship meeting will be held at some date between February 1 and May 1, yet to be decided upon.

The Board of Directors was instructed to incorporate the association under the laws of the State of New York.

Efforts are to be made by the Executive Committee to arrange matches with the revolver associations of England, Canada and France. The United Shooting Societies of France already have been informally communicated with and a committee has been appointed by that association to draft rules and conditions for the proposed competition.

sportsmen and dogs from all parts of the country present.

The attendance is the largest in the history of the club, and many ladies were in the party that was brought over on a special train from the shouting lodge at Hickory Valley.

So far thirty entries have been made for the derby, and to-day seven braces of dogs and twenty-two bevies of birds were tried out. The competition was spirited and the judging will be very difficult. Five braces yet remain to be run before the first series of the derby will be completed. The dogs that ran to-day were: Prince Sing, with Lass R; Bridge's Lass with Question; Alfred's John with Missouri Sue; Ramago Belle with Captain Jack; Lorillard with Jesse Rodfield's Count Gladstone; Greenfield with Lady Rabbit; Dan Short with Leather Stocking.

REFUELIC SPECIAL.

Vicksburg, Miss., Jan. 19.—To-day, the first day of the great interstate cocking main between Mississippi and Indian Territory against Alabama and Georgia, resulted in a victory for Mississippi and Indian Territory, which won eight out of nine fights. The main will be resumed to-morrow and continue until to-morrow midnight.

There are many prominent cocking-main sports from all parts of the country, and fully 500 fine birds to be pitted to the death. On every fight there is a bet of $100 and a side bet of $2,000 on the general result of the main. The chickens are being pitted at the Klondyke Saloou. Just outside of the city limits, and large crowds go to and from the cocking pits while the fighting is in progress.

Francis Defeats Drew. Another surprise was sprung in the French pool tournament at the Broadway last night when J. F. Francis crossed cues with O. B. Drew and won three straight games. It was the first time that Francis has broken into the winning column. Last night he showed his true form and was less affected with "wage fright" than in any of his previous matches. This drawback overcome to a certain extent, he went out and won handly outplaying Drew from start to Brish. To-night Jess Leon will hook up with G. M. Sheppard.

PROGRAMME SET FOR FAIL TO ACCEPT THE NATIONAL SHOOT

the Range in Bobringville-Revolver Matches to Be Set Later.

At a meeting of the Shooting Committee of the new Central Sharpshooting Bund, held last evening at the residence of Doctor Kessler, No. 346 Shenandoah avenue, the programme for the national shoot, to be programme for the national shoot, to be held in June, was arranged and an apportionment of prizes decided upon for the various events.

Those present were Jacob Frank, C. W. Bauer, Sam G. Dorman, Martin Kacer and Doctor Kessler. Eight main events for the rifle, all to be shot at 200 yards, were arranged, but the question of revolver matches was left to a later date for decision. Several of the events on the programme were limited to members, while others are open to the world.

The first event to be decided upon was limited to members, while others are open to the world.

The first event to be decided upon was that at the honor target, the twenty-fivering target, three shots being allowed each contestant. The first prize was set at $100, the second at $80, the three next at $70 each, and other prizes were arranged in a steadily descending scale. Every contestant in this event will receive a prize.

STICH TARGET EVENT.

The "stich" target was also decided upon as an event. In this contest a 12-inch block background is used, with a 6-inch disk therein. Three shots will be fired by each contestant, and $10 will be awarded as a premium to those making three "stiches." In addition, $400 will be given in prizes, commencing with $50 and ranging down to a sixtleth prize of $2.

premium to those making three "stiches." In addition, $400 will be given in prizes, commencing with $50 and ranging down to a sixtieth prize of $2.

In the Kins target shoot, the twenty-fivering target will be used and ten shots will be irred by each contestant. The first prize will be a King medal and $15, while the second prize will be $35, other rewards ranging down to a sixtieth prize of $2.

All these events are for members of the association, and an entry fee of $10 will be charged in each.

In the special team shoot, six men will compose a team, each firing ten shots. Besides the entries, $200 will be added by the association to go to the contestants in this event. The winning team will receive the champion team banner and diploma.

The people's twenty-five-ring target event will be open to all, and four shots will be fired by each contestant. Entry will be $2, with an unlimited re-entry of $1. First money will be $50, second $40, and down to a sixtleth prize of $2.

PRIZE OF $450.

The man target will be a five-shot affair with an entry of $2 and unlimited re-entry. The prize will be $35, distributed in the same proportions as the money in the people's event. The World's Fair shoot will use the $2-inch backed target, with a $5-inch disk. Two shots will be fired, and entry and re-entry will be $1.

The point target will be twenty shots with all entry fee. A medal will be given for $20 points, while the money will be split from $50 down to a sixtieth prize.

It was decided that a meeting should be held later to decide the revolver and pistol events. Prospects for the coming events were talked over and it was regarded as certain that several hundred visiting shooters will attend. The matches will be shot at the range in Bobringville in the course of the Sangerfest week in June.

KINLOCH'S RACING PROGRAMME.

Florisannt Course Proposes to Give Brilliant Season of Spring Sport.

According to John S. Bratton, a stockholder in the concern, Kinioch Park is making ready for a decidedly brilliant season of horse racing, beginning April 15 next. Mr. Bratton says that no purses of less than $50 will be given, and that there will be a $750 handlong every day as well as three jumping events and one gentleas three jumping events and one gentlemen's race per week.

The grand stand turnishings are to be entirely new. The association proposes, Mr. Bratton says, to spend $0,000 in making improvements. The track needs no improvement. It is about perfect. Hence all the money will be spent on the stand and in new stabling.

money will be spent on the mew stabling.

The Kinloch people feel that they are situated pretty handsomely just now. They say that they are not going to take any part in the so-called "ruce track war," which reports from Jefferson City say, is raging in the Missouri State Legislature.

The Kinloch people say that compared raging in the Missouri State Legislature. The Kinloch people say that, compared with the other Missouri racing associations, they have nothing to lose. Hence they will just rest on their oars, save money, and let the other racing associations fight the battle of racing. If the associations win Kinloch is in on the ground floor with the first fifteen days of racing, and no money spent in Jefferson City. It they lose, it has less to lose than any other track.

"If, as has been stated in the public prints, antirace track legislation is a sand-bagging scheme, "he are not in," said a Kinloch stockholder. "Let the big associations stand the walloping. All we want is our thirty days' dates. The fellows who have got 140 cays can stand the gaff. We'll be safe under cover of their shield any-how," have got 140 days can stand the gail. We il be safe under cover of their shield anyhow."

The Kinloch people are feeling pretty strong, inasmuch as the redoubtable P. J. Carmody made them some 100 per cent on their $5,000 investment last fail. But an old Kinloch stockholder said yesterday that the new management would have to step lively to beat Carmody's record.

"You see." said this gentleman, "Carmody made some $7,000, or $500 a day, for us. Now, his personal influence brought us in some $7,000 in donations. Many big business concerns—breweries, restaurants, hotels, etc., gave the warlike Patricius handsome donations for special handicaps. Thus he picked up a lot of money which he put in the association purse.

"Working upon a pure business basis, the meeting about broke even. If Pat had not secured us those donations we might have quit a bit to the bad. So there is not as much in racing as there seems to be; that is, racing run without the whoop and enthusiasm Carmody put into it. Take the money Carmody got in donations away from Kinloch and we would have been losers.

"Mr. Carmody is not with Kinloch this ers.

"Mr. Carmody is not with Kinloch this year. He is a soldier of fortune with a strong arm and a keen sword and a spirit that fears not christendom or any other dom. I do not know that Mr. Murphy can beat him as a money getter."

Joseph A. Murphy is to be "it" at Kinloch, general manager, presiding judge and everything else. Turfmen, who do not sympathize with owners, riders and others fairly tried and convicted of burghary agree that Mr. Murphy is an eminently proper man. Just at present California is crying for him.

The San Francisco papers are making ilfe miserable for poor, big, harmless Ed Hopper, whose feet are rattling around in the vacant Murphy shoes like two peas in twain cider hogsheads. The Chronicle is sending up daily wails for Murphy. It says: "An aggressive man like Joseph A. Murphy is needed to keep tricky owners and jockeys in line. The judges' stand, as at present constituted, is very weak." Other papers agree with the Chronicle, which is unusually conservative. musually conservative.

Affairs are proceeding smoothly at the Fair Grounds. It is said that the Carr gate is to be backed into the six-furiong chute and given a thorough trial. It will be used to stand all the six-furiong dashes, of which there are about two each day. If it proves successful, it will be used at all points. The scheme is a good one. The gate could not be given a trial at a better point. The first turn is over one-quarter of a mile from it, so there will not be any crossing, bumping, etc., after the start.

Mr. Tilles of the Fair Association said yesterday that if gentlemen's races were demanded he would be glad to give them.

"All I would desire," said Mr. Tilles, "is that the riders be sure-enough amateurs and men of business, and that there would not be any chance for professional boys, "ringers" or such to drop into them. I would like to have such races with riders confined to recognized country, golf, polo and hunt clubs; gentlemen known among riders all over the country; men of some edge and weight."

Gibbons and Hegel were the winners last night in the "double-header" played off in the French pool tournament at the Navarre. Gibbons defeat-ed Williams by a score of three games to one, and Hegel won from Maurer by the same score. Games to-night will be between De Turk and Costs and Mathews and Kellam.

TERMS OF PEACE.

National League Magnates Have Not Ratified Section Relating to Players.

EIGHT EVENTS FOR RIFLES. BRUSH IN THICK OF THE FIGHT.

All Will Be Shot at 200 Yards at New York Club Owner Holds Up Proceedings, but Is Outvoted on a Number of Propositions.

> Cincinnati, O., Jan. 19 .- After being in session at the Grand Hotel here this afternoon and again until late to-night, the Na tional Baseball League failed to accept the proposed peace agreement. Even if there had been no injunction issued in anticipa tion of ratification, it is doubtful whether the results would have been different.

the results would have been different.

The greetings in the hotel lobby when the Western and part of the Eastern representatives first met were not such as usually characterize such occasions. Brush. Von der Horat, Knowles and Ebbitts had been on the same train in conference for twenty-four hours, and Soden and Conant arrived but a short time previously. All the others had been in conference and in waiting during the day, and when all finally got together, shortly after 3 o'clock, President Pulliam promptly called them into his parlor, where, from all accounts, the presiding officer had pienty to do.

President Pulliam had before him an opinion from Attorneys Outcalt and Foraker as to what could be done while the injunction was over them, and it was on the advice of counsel that the league went into committee of the whole to discuss the situation rather than to take any decisive action. During the evening recess resident counsel in Philadelphia was engaged by wire for the hearing of the injunction cases on Wednesday, and this was accepted as indicating that Mr. Brush had not yielded to persuasion to drop the cases. It is now possible that the meeting may adjourn to Philadelphia, to meet after the proceedings there in court on Wednesday.

The night session was devoted to considering the joint peace agreement, section by section, and the vote stood 6 to 2 in committee of the whole on all of the first sections, to which no opposition whatever had been expected. The New York and Brooslyn clubs said they were not opposed to these sections, except that they were interwoven in a compact to which they were currenced as a whole.

THE BONE OF CONTENTION. The greetings in the hotel lobby when

THE BONE OF CONTENTION. THE BONE OF CONTENTION.

The last two sections apply to territory rights and players, and opposition was expected to these sections because New York is included in the American circuit and because players that New York and Brooklyn claim have been taken from them. At midnight no vote had been taken on either of these much-disputed sections, and it is doubtful whether any vote will be reached during the night. There was also some doubt as to how Boston would vote on those sections. some doubt as to how Boston would vote on those sections.

President Robison said the league ought to have completed its work in thirty min-utes and indorsed such men as were in the new ownership of the Cincinnati club, and on that Conference Committee. He and other Western members greatly regretted the sit-uation.

Among those in the hotel lobby were Captain Donovan of the St. Louis team, Business Manager Frank Bancroft of the Cincinnati team; Buck Ewing, formerly manager of the Cincinnati team; Robert L. Hedges of the St. Louis American League club, and George Stallings, manager of the Buffalo club.

PULLIAM WILL NOT RESIGN. President Pulliam denies the report that he will resign his present position to be-come the head of the new Philadelphia club when it is secured by the Dreyfuss syndi-cate, which includes W. Kesley Schoepf of Carcimani and Hugh J. McGovern of In-Cincinnati and Hugh J. McGovern of Indianapolis.

President Harry C. Pulliam was in the chair, and all of the clubs were represented as follows: A. H. Soden and Director A. H. Conant, Boston; John T. Brush, secretary; F. M. Knowles and Director N. Ashley Lloyd, New York; Brooklyn, President C. H. Ebbits and Director H. P. Von der Horst; Philadelphia, Barney Dreyfuss power of attorney; Pittsburg, President Dreyfuss; Cincinnati, President August Herrmann and Director Julius Fleischmann; Chicago, President James A. Hart; St. Louis, President Frank deHass Robison and Treasurer M. Stanley Robison. Frank deHass Robison and Treasurer M. Stanley Robison.

Before approving the minutes of the meeting last month in New York, a correction was made substituting the name of John T. Brush for that of John I. Rogers as the author of the resolution under which the Peace Conference Committee was appointed. President Pulliam then read a letter received by him from John I. Rogers of the Philadelphia club, protesting against the signing of Delehanty by the New York club. Mr. Rogers said:

ROGERS FILES PROTEST.

ROGERS FILES PROTEST.

"I have received official notice of players' contract with the New York club, in which is included J. E. Delehanty, for the years 1806, 1904, 1905. For the reasons advanced at our recent National League meeting I hereby protest against the action of the New York club in signing Delehanty to that contract, as it is in violation, not only of the reserve rules, but in violation of the lawful and duly renewed contract of this club with Delehanty for the senson of 1905. The constitution of the League absolutely prohibits any negotiations with a league club and a player under contract with another club.

lately prohibits any negotiations with a league club and a player under contract with another club.

"In addition to this it is a violation of the pledge and agreement made by the different clubs at the meeting held at the League office September 24 and 25, at which each club promised to abide by the list furnished each other of all players under contract. Delehanty's name was on the list so furnished by the Philadelphia club, and on no other list furnished at that meeting.

"Outside of all league constitutions and agreements Delehanty was unable to play in Pennsylvania last year, because he had violated a lawful contract which had been upheld by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in the Lajole case. In every other court where the contract was under judicial scrutiny, the legality of the contract has been upheld, although in two instances its enforcement by a court of equity has been refused.

ANOTHER CLAIM TO DELEHANTY.

ANOTHER CLAIM TO DELEHANTY.

"I also dosire to protest against the New York club, through its agents, interfering with the negotiations of the Philadelphia club with players under contract to it, viz. Lajoie and Flick. This is also in violation of the constitution of the League, and of the law of the land. These negotiations of the New York club have not only occurred during the season, but since the baseball season closed, and cannot even be regarded as a war measure. This paper is simply meant as a protest, to be followed up by charges against the New York club and its officers, which we propose to enforce in the tribunals of the League, and perhaps, if occasion justifies it, in the civil courts."

The league then went into committee of the whole, with President Pulliam as chairman and Julius Fleischmann as secretary. A motion by Hart of Chicago to admit members of the press was withdrawn after objection had been raised. Previously the newspapermen had secured pledges for admittance from representatives of the Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis clubs.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS. ANOTHER CLAIM TO DELEHANTY. CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS.
Before the report of the Conference Committee was read, President Hermann presented a telegram from the directors of the Western League, urging that the agreement between the National and American Leagues be ratified in the interest of the national game. The report of the Conference Committee, which was sizned by Pullam, Herrmann, F. DeHass Robinson and Hart, was then submitted by Chairman Herrmann.

Hart, was then submitted by Chairman Herrmann.

This report is an exhaustive document, but in substance it is a review of the operations of the "Peace" Committee, since the National League meeting in New York a month ago, when the committee was appointed to treat with the American League. The original resolution was made a part of the report. Then follows a short account of the peace conference at Cincinnati and a complete copy of the terms of the peace pact, as drawn up and signed by the joint committee. In conclusion the report reads:

"Our committee unanimously recommends that said agreement be adopted and ratified by this league. We believe that in doing so, the National League will make a move that will be more lasting, more beneficial, and will meet with more general approval than any action that has been taken for some time, and will certainly be in strict accord with the very objects of our association, as set forth in its constitution.

HERMANN'S RESOLUTION ADOPTED. A motion by Robison, seconded by Fleischmann, then prevailed to take up consideration of the joint agreement transmitted with the Herrmann report, section by section. A general and animated discussion

Milwaukee. Wis., Jan. 19.—Henry Kilillea, chairman of the American League Peace Committee, is disgusted at the action of John T. Brush of the New York Club, in attempting to prevent the ratification of the agreement entered into at Cincinnatl. Mr. Kilillea said:

"Mr. Brush has done some very peculiar things in baseball during the time he has been identified with the sport, but none were more surprising than his attempt to block the peace compact at Cincinnati.

"Sometimes I have thought that perhaps Mr. Brush was misquoted or abused, but his action in enjoining some of the National

Mr. Brush was misquoted or abused, but his action in enjoining some of the National League clubs shows how little he has the sport at heart.

"As to the injunction I will say that the courts of Philadelphia will no doubt dissolve it. There is nothing upon which Mr. Brush has to stand, and no court will prevent the ratification of the peace agreement by such a filmsy pretext as the New York man advances."

Meeting of Western League and American Association Magantes, Omaha, Neb., Jan. 19.—Manager William Rourke of the Omaha club of the Western League departed to-night for Kansas City acted on at the meeting. The principal one is that of deciding the Kansas City-Milis that of deciding the Kansas City-Kan-watkee deal.

Rourke says that a majority of the clubs will demand that the American Association drop Kansas City altogether, and that as an offset the Western League will withdraw from Milwaukee, Sloux City is slated for the Milwaukee franchise, but whether final action will be taken at to-morrow's meeting is indefinite. deciding the Kansas City-Mil to Be Improving.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—President Ban Johnson of the American League, who is suffering with pneumonia, was reported as improved to-day. The congestion has been checked and a continued improvement is expected.

The injury to his knee, which Mr. Johnson sustained a few days ago, is causing him some uneasiness, being slow to heal and showing symptoms of blood poisoning. Doctor Howard Crutcher said to-night, however, that there was no cause for alarm.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Jan. 19.—If the plans of Abram S. Hewitt, who died in New York Sunday, had been adopted by Congress, Washington would not now boast of its magnificent library of Congress, but it would passess a more pretentious Capitol building than the present structure. It was Mr. Hewitt's idea, and one which he dwelt upon whenever there was occasion for discussing the subject, that the national Capitol building is inharmonious in design and out of proportion from an architectural standpoint.

Mr. Hewitt became so much interested in the subject that it grew to be a sort of hobby with him, and at his own expense he had drafted extensive plans showing the improved appearance of the Capitol by the adoption of his suggestion.

JIM CORBETT IS WILLING TO FIGHT AT FORT ERIE.

Will Gladly Box Jeffries in June.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 19.-James J. Corbett is in this city, and says he will accept the offer of the Fort Erie club of Buffalo of a purse of $25,600, for a fight between Jeffries and himself. He says he will fight Jeffries in June, and is anxious to have the champion sign articles at once. Corbett appears to be in excellent condition.

"I do not want a split purse," said Cor-bett, "for I will fight him with the understanding that the winner take 75 per cent and the loser 25 per cent. He has crawled out of making a match with me after promising my representatives he would meet them and sign articles. I understand the Fort Erie club says it will put up a forfeit for the fight, so I do not see what Jeffries means in not hurrying up and signing the articles." ong the articles.

Corbett aiready has $5,000 up in forfeits to bind a match with the champion. He first deposited $2,500 with Sam Thrail of San Francisco, and a few days ago he put up $2,500 more with Al Smith of this city. He thus has both ends of the proposition covered.

Thus far Jeffries has said nothing definite regarding a fight with Corbett. He has repeatedly promised Corbett another chance at him, and only recently stated that he would take the champion on as soon as a reputable club made a reasonable offer. With Corbett's forfeits up and two offers of big purses for the bout local sportsmen are inclined to think that Jeffries should do something.

Besides the $25,000 purse offered by the Fort Erie institution, the Hayes Valley Athletic Club of Oakland, Cal., has hung up $20,000 for the go. That offer was made fully two weeks ago and Corbett accepted at once. Jeffries, however, refused to commit himself.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 19.—Sheriff Barrett of Cook County communicated to-day with Colonel Oglesby, private secretary to the Colonei Ogicsby, private secretary to the Governor, relative to the prize fight scheduled to take place in Chicago to-night. The Sheriff said he saw no reasons why the bout should not be allowed to proceed, but announced that he wished to defer to the wishes of the Governor, and that if the Governor desired the mill to be stopped he would carry out his instructions. Sheriff Barrett further said he would wait until 19 p. m. to hear from Governor Yates. Governor Yates then sent the following telegram to Sheriff Barrett:

If the law is unjust because too stringent it will doubtless in time be amended, but until that time it is not proper for either you or me to ignore violations of it. It is not for me to say at this distance what constitutes a violation and what does not. The particular contest to which I called your attention I find to have been widely advertised it all papers mentioning it as a fight pure and simple between some of the most notorious fighters in the whole country. These statements undoubtedly emanated from its promoters. It is this advertisement which leads me to believe that this fight is a violation. I have received no complaint from any individual. I suggest that you confer with the State Attorney of your country.

New York, Jan. 19.—Jack Munroe of Butte, Mont., where Mary McLane came from made his debut to day at the new Star Theater matinee in a lurid piece called "The Road to Ruin." The house was jammed to the roof and Munroe made a pronounced hit.

In the action of the piece he is not supposed to appear until the third act, when he tescues the heroine from the villain. But the heroine in the show is a woman always in trouble: when she is not getting strangled or shot or stabbed, she is being run over by railroad trains or thrown off steamboats. She is due to be strangled in the second act.

The strangling came off all right to-day.
